OUR VALUES

Our values and culture serve as the foundation of who we are, influencing the way we work with our colleagues, support our clients, impact the environment and give back to our communities. Together, we help you navigate constant disruption, seize new growth opportunities and enable the continuous transformative change you need to own your future.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENTS

We are committed to investing in our people and fostering a work environment that values diversity and inclusion, which ignites innovation and enables our people to achieve their full potential.

DICKEN AMIMO

Company Director

As your strategic partner, our teams meet you wherever you are on your transformation journey to develop strategies and innovative solutions, align your workforce with your organizational objectives, leverage technologies and improve operational efficiencies, enabling you to build a strong foundation for sustainable growth.

By embracing diverse perspectives, encouraging new ideas, and challenging the status quo, we create sustainable results for the organizations we serve.

OUR COMPANY

Our people and values-driven culture set us apart. Our diverse team of experts come from the industries we serve and understand the complexities of your business. Combined with our strategic, operational, technical and cultural expertise, we collaborate across our businesses to help you imagine the future and transform for tomorrow.

In today's competitive landscape, organizations are under immense pressure to rethink their business models, lower costs and reduce risk.

Deep operational capability and industry expertise, underpinned by our extensive business transformation and implementation experience.

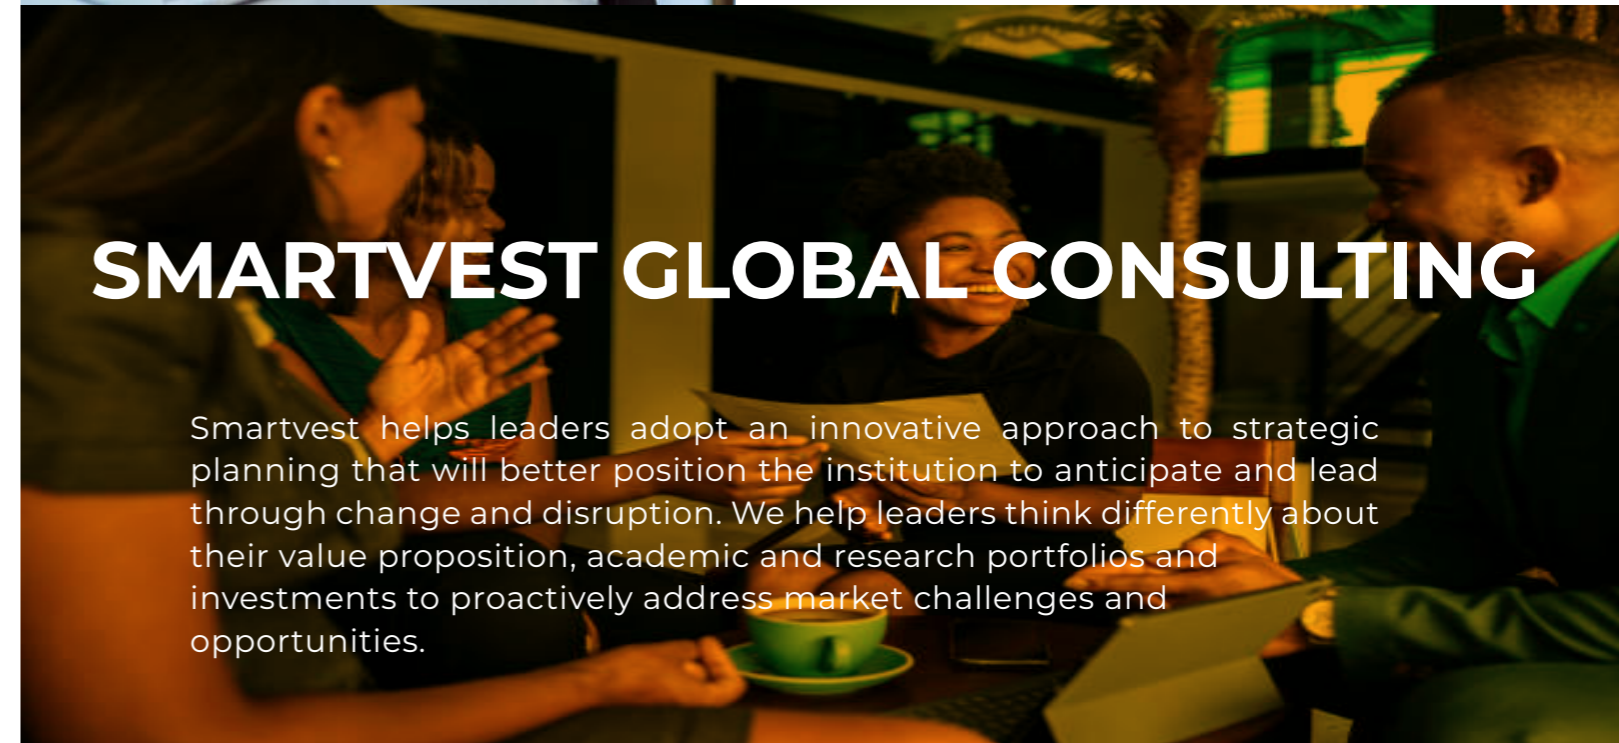

STRATEGY & INNOVATION

In today's disruptive environment, organizations must reimagine their historical strategies and business models to sustain and advance their competitive advantage.

Too often, traditional strategic planning approaches are rooted in past assumptions and dated insights. Smartvest helps organizations build strategies around what tomorrow's disrupters will be and where opportunities lie. Our strategy experts work with leadership teams to align around a shared vision for the future and the investments needed to realize it. We mitigate complexity by advising leaders on how to manage parallel strategies for improving today's business and launching long-term growth initiatives.

OUR SERVICES

Retaining and developing top talent has never been more complex. For organizations to own their future, they must differentiate their employer brand and unlock the power of their workforce by aligning around shared goals and values, optimizing the employee experience and engaging their team in new ways. Organizations also need to develop future-ready leaders who can drive meaningful cultural and organizational change. Our combination of strategy, deep expertise and creativity can help you enable your team to achieve your strategic transformation.

SMARTVEST GLOBAL CONSULTING

Smartvest helps leaders adopt an innovative approach to strategic planning that will better position the institution to anticipate and lead through change and disruption. We help leaders think differently about their value proposition, academic and research portfolios and investments to proactively address market challenges and opportunities.

MANAGED SERVICES

Maintaining sustainable revenues, managing cash flow and allocating resources effectively are essential to the viability of any organization — but are only table stakes. Elevate your finance function to be a strategic partner in your organization. Refresh your organizational design and modernize your financial processes and systems to improve financial performance, act quickly on strategic opportunities and make better, faster decisions that maximize value for your business.

We develop unique solutions aligned with the needs of your digital ecosystem and culture to support you along every step of your transformation journey.

SMARTVEST GLOBAL CONSULTING

In addition, with extensive experience of working within the sectors we serve, our consultants have a first hand understanding of your challenges and how to achieve your cost transformation goals. Client collaboration is at the heart of how our consultants operate – we work in genuine partnership with businesses and don't just look to apply one-size-fits-all processes.

DIGITAL, TECHNOLOGY

Organizations must develop strategies and adopt technologies, automation and analytics to enhance their competitive advantage and drive growth.

In a world of continuous disruption and accelerating change, Huron can help you use technology to accelerate growth and enable transformation. Our experts help organizations across industries embed digital technology throughout their internal and customer-facing operations to support innovation, facilitate data-driven decision making and develop a 360-degree view of their customers.

ORGANISATIONS TRANSFORMATION

Strategically aligned organizations that embrace change, engage teams in new ways and optimize the employee experience will own their future and enable long-term growth.

Equipped with the right culture, resources, internal structures and incentives to proactively respond to change, leaders can prepare their organization to succeed under any condition. Our experts work with leaders across industries to design the right operating model for you and align people, processes and goals in ways that enable your strategic vision, increase transparency, reduce costs, improve customer satisfaction and unify employees to achieve sustainable results.

WHAT WE OFFER?

Whether you're looking to make longer-term strategic cost decisions or drive operational efficiencies at pace, we work as part of your team to deliver measurable and sustainable results.

We work alongside you to shape your strategic vision, translating this into tangible actions. Whether these are localised workstreams in functional areas of your organisation, or large transformational engagements, we will identify and implement opportunities to reform your business in close collaboration with your teams.

Whether your strategic driver is to strengthen existing market presence or break into emerging markets, through accurate scenario modelling and detailed cost analysis we will identify the optimal approach to source, manufacture and design-in innovation and sustainability.

WHY CHOOSE US ?

Business advice and strategies are everywhere, and separating the wheat from the chaff can cost you both time and effort. That's why we're here to do it for you. Your wealth needs to work for you, but knowing what investment advice to take can be confusing — and taking the wrong advice is sometimes worse than doing nothing at all. That's why we'll always ensure a lack of know-how will never result in a lack of can-do. You can rest assured that whatever you invest, and where, will be right for you and your financial future.

We work alongside you to shape your strategic vision, translating this into tangible actions.
